

BEING FRANCISCAN: “The Universal Christ”

May 23, 30, June 06 and June 13 in Brunsman Hall. 7:00-8:30pm. Free will offering. All are welcome.

A FOUR PART STUDY SERIES USING THE NEW BOOK BY RICHARD ROHR, OFM
FACILITATED BY BRO. MARK SCHROEDER, OFM

BEING FRANCISCAN: “The Universal Christ”

A 4 Part Fall Course on Franciscan Life with Bro. Mark Schroeder, OFM
Sponsored by the St. Francis of Assisi Parish Pathways for Justice Committee.

A new study series will begin Thursday May 23 led by Bro. Mark. Open to everyone interested in simple-style classes, we will be using the new book by Franciscan Friar Richard Rohr, titled “The Universal Christ.” (It would be helpful if you purchased the book, but not a requirement. Your attendance is most important.) We will use video, discussion, and prayer throughout the classes. There is no cost—just the usual free-will donation to Bro. Mark’s ministry, Franciscans for Justice.

- May 23 Chapter One: Christ Is Not Jesus’s Last Name
- May 30 Chapter Two: Accepting That You Are Fully Accepted
- June 06 Chapter Three: Revealed in Us—as Us
- June 13 Chapter Four: Original Goodness

Brunsmann Hall | 7:00-8:30pm | Free Will Donation accepted